A young multi-racial Kanaka Maoli (Native Hawaiian) woman, filmmaker Christen Hepuakoa Marquez, sets out to discover the meaning of her incredibly lengthy Hawaiian name from her estranged mother whose diagnosis as schizophrenic in the 80’s caused their family separation. Christen discovers not only herself within the name, but gains a whole new perspective on the idea of sanity and how cultural differences can sometimes muddle its definition.

Christen will make a special guest appearance this evening sharing her insights and journey in the making of this film. Movie DVD’s will be available for sale AND Christen will personally sign them upon request. For more detail about the film please see the following link: <http://www.toweavename.com>.
